|--------------------------------|---|
| Bonuses / Allowances    | Bonuses are incentives or rewards for outstanding service, and allowances are taxable in full even if they are paid to compensate an employee for an expense which may be (or has been) incurred in relation to work, such as uniform allowances. Note that Accommodation and Motor Vehicle Allowances may have an exempt component.  |
| Fringe Benefits         | The definition of wages for Payroll Tax includes any fringe benefits as defined in the Fringe Benefits Tax Act 1986 . Benefits that are taxable under the FBT Act are also taxable under the Act and must be declared as wages for payroll tax purposes. If a benefit is exempt under the FBT Act, it is also exempt for Payroll Tax purposes.   |
| Contractor Payments     | Under certain circumstances, payments to contractors are taxable where the contractor provides labour services and works exclusively for one person. The provisions relating to contractors deem contractors to be 'employees' and payments made to them, excluding GST are deemed to be wages.
