Note due to COVID-19 relief measures:

- Businesses and business groups with Australian (annualised grouped) wages up to $4 million for 2018-19 will receive a six month payroll tax waiver. This relief does not extend to government organisations. The COVID-19 Ex-gratia field is only displayed where the organisation is subject to a payroll tax waiver as part of the COVID-19 relief measures.

- Businesses with Australian (annualised grouped) wages above $4 million for 2018-19 who have been adversely impacted by COVID-19 can apply (as part of the 2019-20 payroll tax annual reconciliation) to defer their payroll tax payments for the March to June 2020 returns periods until October 2020. The COVID-19 Relief section will be displayed for these businesses.

The screenshot shows a web form titled "COVID-19 Relief". It contains an information icon and a paragraph: "If your business has been adversely impacted by COVID-19 you can apply to defer your payroll tax liabilities. Please indicate if you wish to apply for your obligation for payroll tax to be deferred. This request may be subject to an audit by RevenueSA and you are required to retain evidence that your business has been adversely impacted, including a reduction in turnover, for a period of 5 years. If your business has not been adversely impacted, including a reduction in turnover, you will be required to be up-to-date with all payroll tax payments. For more information please refer to the RevenueSA website." Below this is a declaration statement: "I declare that my business has been adversely impacted, including a reduction in turnover and I would like to apply to have my payroll tax deferred." There are radio buttons for "Yes" (which is selected) and "No", and an information icon.
