Document Name:	Exemptions
Exemption Provision:	Pursuant to 71CBA

Introduction

Introduction

This Document Guide Note applies to a conveyance of land pursuant to Section 71CBA. This section provides, inter alia, an exemption from stamp duty to a transfer of land between former domestic partners (or a trustee of a domestic partner's superannuation fund) who have cohabitated continuously as domestic partners for at least three years and the transfer is consequential upon a:

- certified domestic partnership agreement; or
- property adjustment order

A transfer of land from a company or trust to a domestic partner of the domestic relationship pursuant to the Domestic Partners Property Act 1996 may be exempt from stamp duty. The transfer must be submitted to the Commissioner for assessment together with a copy of:

- the Order; and
- a copy of the trust deed (if applicable).

Your submission must also advise:

- the character of the property involved (e.g. the family home);
- the extent that the parties to the marriage own and/or control the company or trust involved (i.e. the extent to which the company itself could be said to be an asset of the domestic relationship);
- the identity and role of any other persons involved in the transfer;
- the identity and role of any other owners or beneficiaries of the company or trust; and
- the relationship between any other persons associated with the transfer and the parties to the domestic relationship.

Domestic partner is defined in the Domestic Partners Property Act 1996 which states:

domestic partner means:

- a) a person in a registered relationship, and includes:

- i) A person who is about to enter into a registered relationship; or
- ii) A person who has been in a registered relationship; or

- b) a person who lives in a close personal relationship, and includes:
 - i) a person who is about to enter a close personal relationship; or
 - ii) a person who has lived in a close personal relationship.

Close personal relationship means the relationship between 2 adult persons (whether or not related by family and irrespective of their gender) who live together as a couple on a genuine domestic basis, but does not include –

- the relationship between a legally married couple; or
- a relationship where 1 of the persons provides the other with domestic support or personal care (or both) for fee or reward, or on behalf of some other person or an organisation of whatever kind.

Note: Two persons may live together as a couple on a genuine domestic basis whether or not a sexual relationship exists, or has ever existed, between them.

Domestic relationship means the relationship between domestic partners.

Certificated domestic partnership agreement has the same meaning as in the Domestic Partners Property Act 1996.

Property adjustment order means an order of a court under Part 3 or 4 of the Domestic Partners Property Act 1996.

Registered relationship means a relationship that is registered under the Relationships Register Act 2016, and includes a corresponding law registered relationship under that Act.

You will need to indicate whether the land is used as residential or non-residential. For further advice on this refer to the Document Guide Page.
